NEW DANCE WITHOUT HUGGING

Twinkle Waltz, Is Devoid of Shrugs and Shuffles; Will Be Craze, Is Prediction.

(WNU News Service) Pittsburg, Pa., May 12 .- A new waltz, the "Twinkle," devoid of hugs and shrugs and shuffles, will be demonstrated by its inventor, Thomas McDougall, secretary of the American Association of Masters of Dancing, at the annual convention of that organization, in Cleveland, O., June 8 and 20. Prof. McDougall is rehearsing the 'Twinkle" here with a partner for official presentation before the convention. The new dance is said to be modest and graceful.

Throughout, there is an absence of swaying and wrestling movements. The few who have seen a demonstration of the latest dance assert that it is certain to become a popular craze.

Bystanders stated that but for the interference of Officer Stone, who arrived on the scene, Mr. Langevin would have been harshly dealt with. He drove away when the officer appeared, and later returned with a check for the dissatisfied Inborer.

> In the meantime David and his companion imblhed too strongly to permit of peaceable conduct and the officers were compelled to conduct them to prison. When they reached the jail it is said that one of the boys resented the action taken by the authorities and proceeded to make a rough house, while the other one availed himself of the opportunity, and quietly made his getaway. He was later found in Haarig, and Jeff Hutson the invincible peace officer administered an opiate in the way of a quick clout with a hardwood club to the side of the fugitive's "bean," after which no further resistance was offered and the young offender meekly accompanied the officers to his place of confinement.
